Professor Livingston steals a three-foot flame from Miss Fairchild's mouth and Miss Pairchild gracefully steals it back. THE SAME OLD MONOTONOUS STORY OF DEFEAT.

THE RELEASE OF PITCHER MALONEY

He Does Not Think it Was Justified-Why the Club is Not

It was the same old story, that has crown so wearlsome to buseball enthulasts, at Hartford yesterday. The Washingtons could not lift the ball when a if meant cans, and so were beaten it to Phillips pitched an excellent game. out errors happened just when the Hartford men made hits, and thus enabled them to score. The pseulist thing about the game, was that fiftee a Washington men went to bases either on hits, bases on balls, or being hit by the pitcher, and yet only one of them resched home, and he would not have done that had it not been for an error y the right fielder of the Hartfords. Such ball playing is simply inexplicable and nobody can understand it. The men must have gone to sleep on the bases and not tried to do any base steal-

So far as ficiding was concerned both cams put up an exceptionally good game. O'Brien at second doing remarkbly well.

The same clubs play again to-day, and with Daniels pitching there is some loop that Sullivan amen may break the long string of defeats and win a game. It will be an agreeable surprise if they do: if they don't everybody will accept the result philosophically, for they are expecting nothing better.

DEFEATED ON MONDAY, Although the Washington Club did not play a scheduled game on Monday, they went to Cambridge for an exhibi-tion game and played the Harvard College nine. They had no better suc-cess with them than they have had with the Atlantic Association teams, for the collegians look them into camp to the collegisms took them into camp to the tune of 6 to 5. Certainly the home team must be suffering from something or other, when even a college team can beat them. MALONEY BELEASED. Pitcher Maioney arrived in the city vesterday morning, and upon going to President Hewett's was givin his re-lease. No cause was assigned for it lease. No cause was assigned for it other than that the club could not afford to carry so many pitchers, and it now has three on whom it can depend. Maloney was considerably put out over his release, as he did not believe it was matified by the work he has been doing. He pitched good ball, but lost games because the men either did not support him or because they could not hit the ball effectively.

Speaking of the loss of so many games, and the reason for it, Maloney said the men were batting hard, but it eemed impossible for them to place the all safely. All the men were in good ondition and taking care of themselves, ball wafely. but they were playing in pretty hard luck. In some of the games the un-pire had a good deal to do with the loss of them favoring the home team in every close decision, and being particu-larly hard on the Washington pitchers. The release of Maloney leaves the cinb with three pitchers-Phillips Danlels and Underwood. The first two are all right. Their work is known and the public know what to expec when they go into the box. It is different with Underwood. He has pitched one goed game, the only one in which he played, but whether he can keep it up is a question. If he can, we are well fixed for pitchers. Otherwise it will be a repetition of the past few weeks, when the men were overworked.

to it he said:

Welf, we decided to-day that we have to come down to cheaper ball. I have telegraphed to the other clubs in the National League for permission to reduce our prices to twenty five and possibly twenty cents. Pending the decision, which, of course, must be saintioned by President Nick Young, we have decided to accept the proposition of the Cincinnatt Club, and will leave for that city to-night.

It is hot to-day, but I can stand anything after the roasting I have been getting of late. I am in favor cuiting the price of ball in Pittsburg down to fifteen sents, if necessary, in order to get the people to attend our games. We will play no more cames here until we can get better crowds in some way. o It he said:

This is the first break in the League ines, and it will give the Brotherho shouters something to crow over. They forget that the Brotherhood club lu nonth ago. When the League decided to reduce the number of clubs from ten to eight, those who knew the situation in Pittsburg pleaded for the dropping of that ciry. Either Washington or Indianapella would do better, but the League people declared they would not give up the city in the face of opposition. This is the result. It is to be bered that the League will refuse to count the club permission to reduce its President Young is decidedly opposed to it. He believes the League to be a fifty-cent organization, and it is in duty bound to keep the tariff up to that figure. Mr. O Neill talks through his hat when he says he will reduce the price to filteen cents. If necessary Why, basefull is no dime nouseous basis ness, and it will not do to put it on such a level.
